Georgia On My Mind: Planting Flags In The Crossroads Of Asia And Europe

By Leon Wilfan

I've been hearing rumors in the offshore world about a fascinating country no one thinks much about—Georgia. This small former-Soviet country and its 3.7 million inhabitants is situated in a strategic trade area between Europe and Asia and is an attractive destination to plant your flag. It boasts a progressive business environment, ranking 16th in The World Bank's "ease of doing business" rankings, just above Germany and much higher than Switzerland. Moreover, it has open visa and residency policies, low taxes, good wine, and beautiful landscapes. Georgia is definitely a country that should be on your radar.
